Contributions to Relief Activities in Response to Hurricane Gustav and Tropical Storm Hanna

13. (SBU) Begin list of Aid Contributions (As of September 10)

-- Canada/CIDA has contributed USD 604,436 in emergency assistance and in-kind donations of kitchen kits, blankets, hygiene kits, etc. Post has no information on Canada,s response to the UN Flash Appeal (reftel).

-- Brazil has contributed USD 100,000 in water and food assistance.

-- Press reports (not verified by post nor included in OCHA list of contributions) indicate Venezuela donated a total of 33 tons of food and commodities. (Note: Media noted September 10 that Venezuelan President Hugo Chavez said he would soon send medical personnel, first-aid workers and engineers to assist in rescue operations and evaluation of the humanitarian crisis. End note.)

-- ECHO (European Commission Humanitarian Organization) has contributed or pledged USD 18,231,789 in emergency assistance for immediate emergency relief, food security and other areas of humanitarian aid.

-- France has contributed or pledged USD 5,607,998 in logistical, budget support and food aid. France has also provided in-kind contributions of (5) technical experts and water purification equipment.

-- Germany has provided USD 214,000 in emergency relief.

-- Japan has provided USD 156,000 in non-food items, including plastic sheeting, water purifiers, tents, generators, mattresses, water containers, electric wire, etc.

-- This foreign assistance compares to the U.S. providing over USD 20,000,000 in humanitarian assistance. Sources include USAID/OFDA, USAID/FFP, USAID/Haiti, DOD and DHS assistance to support delivery of logistical support, emergency relief food and supplies, health and shelter sector support, and transportation.
